Dear Dr. Gates:

I would like to commend the performance of [] of your legislative liaison office in discussing with one of our seminars the varied aspects of the CIA's interaction with Congress. The discussion was part of our core program on executive-legislative interaction. [] displayed an impressive mix of candor and discretion in describing for our students the singular nature and evolution of the CIA's relationship with Congress.

Along with leaving the session much better informed on the issue, our students came away with the clear impression that they had spoken with a true professional who is undoubtedly highly effective in carrying out her responsibilities.

I would appreciate it if you would pass this note along to []

Sincerely,

Perry
